

One Paragraph. One Legacy.

Include us in your will with just a sentence—and leave a mark that lasts forever.

One call is all it takes to begin your legacy. We'll handle the rest.

A gift through your will is one of the easiest ways to support our mission. Just one sentence in your estate plan can have a lasting impact—without affecting your finances today.

- Costs nothing during your lifetime
- Preserves your cash flow and savings
- Flexible — can be changed or revoked
- Easy to arrange with your attorney
- Lets you be more generous than you ever imagined

With creative ways to give, you can help us build a legacy of impact for generations to come.

The Future You Trust Starts with a Gift You Believe In

Your legacy is more than a gift—it's a vote of confidence in the future we'll build together.

One call is all it takes to begin your legacy. We'll handle the rest.

Trust is built over time—and so is legacy. By including us in your will or trust, you ensure that the causes you care about today will be cared for tomorrow.

- A lasting expression of your values
- Helps future generations benefit from your vision
- Doesn't affect your finances now
- Simple to add to your estate plan
- Can be updated as your priorities evolve

With meaningful gifts built on trust, you help our mission endure—and ensure your values live on.
